Press Release: For Immediate Release

'Night Taxi Boy' is the debut single from London based Polish-Welsh band No Thoughts No Gravity. The song features the band's unique sound, formed of an eclectic mix of dark, guitar driven art/indie rock, tantalising melody with an ambiance straight out of a David Lynch movie.

The band's guitar player, Phil NoThoughts said of the song:

"This is probably our best material to date and we're delighted to be working with SubverCity to release it. It's an atmospheric song and part of a wider concept that we're working on for our debut album."

No Thoughts No Gravity have already been lauded in parts of the Polish press and were selected to take part in Muzyczne Rodowody, a project partially financed by The Ministry of Foreign Affairs for the Republic of Poland which was conceived of in order to highlight the cultural achievements of Polish emigres.

No Thoughts No Gravity comprise of singer Justyna Salamon and guitarist/producer Phil NoThoughts. During live shows they are joined by drummer Spiros Maus. The band have been gigging regularly whilst accumulating a YouTube channel view count of over 50 thousand views with their innovative song arrangements.
