

'Out of Her Mind' by No Thoughts No Gravity

From on high the city lights just look so beautiful

Who can say what they belie

Hidden deeds and the secrets of the people there

A girl I know who lives a lie

She's taken it all in her stride for him

Inside for him

She's been throwing her life at the wall, it seems

Insane, it seems, she wants him back

---

She must be out of her mind...

---

In the night there are people who facilitate

A downward spiral in a girl

I know a girl who's been living life in custody

In city lights that rule her world

She's been taking the rough with the smooth for love

Obsessed by love

She's been pouring her heart in a glass for him

Obsessed by him, she wants him back

She must be out of her mind...
